Parrot

Parrot, Aug. 9. — Death entered the home of Mart Combs, Saturday, August 7th, at 1 o'clock in the morning and took from him his loving wife, Mrs. Ala Combs. She had been sick over a year. She was 52 years, 6 months and eight days old at the time of her death. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jefferson Combs (deceased). She had belonged to the Baptist Church at Green Hall about eleven years, and was loved by all her neighbors. She told her children to not weep over her, but prepare to meet her in heaven, that she had suffered a great deal, but her suffering was over. She leaves a husband, two daughters, six sisters, a brother and many other relatives to mourn her death. She was laid to rest in the Gabbard grave-yard Sunday morning. Funeral services were conducted by The Revs. Pearl Hacker and Henry Mullins.

Gather Up The Fragments That Nothing Be Lost

Beans, Corn, Tomatoes, Apples, Peaches, Pears and a lot of other things are now ready to can. For the next three months there will be wasted more stuff in the garden than there will be used. Invest $3.50 in a Berea Canner and save $50.00 to $75.00 worth of your garden truck.

(A page from our book of instructions that goes with the Berea Canner.)

Canning Fruits and Vegetables

INTRODUCTION

You are Member No. .... of the great Berea Canner family. Canning is like other work—you may do real fine canning or you may do your work haphazard. (Please do not slight your work—I would rather return your money.) Follow our instructions the first year,—improve on them the next.

If you become an expert like those through whose kindness I secured these instructions, you become a co-laborer with God himself. God helps us to grow these fruits and vegetables. He wants us to help Him to gather and save them, so nothing be lost.

If you don't succeed at first, don't condemn these instructions, nor the Canner. They have been tried—they do the work. Perhaps the trouble is lack of familiarity with the booklet and Canner. Canning is simple. Use judgment and ordinary cooking sense.

A SUGGESTION

In the olden days men sacrificed the first fruits of the field and garden to the gods. Put your first fruits up in a Berea Canner to be given away Thanksgiving and Christmas time. It is more acceptable to the all-loving Father than sacrifice. Make some neglected children happy—you and the Berea Canner will become a blessing. Scarcity of food in the winter time often makes Christmas a curse instead of a blessing. So gather up the fragments. Can a few things as they get ripe. Your Thanksgiving and Christmas spirit must begin when the first fruits and vegetables get ripe.

You cannot feed 5,000 with a few loaves like our Master, but you can gather up the fragments and feed the millions, and thus become a co-worker with the Almighty in feeding the children of men.

H. LENGFELLNER.

Make Believe

Take a pair of chickens snowy,
Harness 'em with bits of string;
Drive 'em out across the meadow,
Where the first blue violets spring.
Make believe that you're a princess,
Talking in a foreign tongue—
Riding through a golden palace;
(Yes, it's easy—if you're young!)

All the world is bright to greet you;
When your snowy chargers prance
Out across the dusty roadway,
All the daisies seem to dance.
Every blade of grass is bowing,
Every cowslip bell is rung
Just to give you joy and pleasure.
(Yes, it's easy—if you're young!)

When the springtime of your fancy
Melts away to winter grim;
When the leaves of youth and childhood
Flutter from the highest limb—
Take a pair of memory chickens,
Harness 'em with strands of gold,
Make believe—an' make it easy
If you're young or if you're old!
